

I am pleased to offer greetings to the Canadian Association of Chinese Performing Arts for their 3rd annual Toronto Dragon Festival! The Festival, being held at Nathan Phillips Square, is aimed at fostering Canadian multiculturalism and building bonds with diverse communities.

With the safety measures put in place to manage the COVID-19 pandemic, the Dragon Festival had been put on hold. Now, the Festival has returned and will rejuvenate the community through Chinese folk music; waist-drum dance; a fashion show; street food and much more.

Following successful events in 2018 and 2019 that had attracted thousands of guests, the City of Toronto is looking forward to this 3-day event scheduled for September 2nd to September 4th, 2022. The public is invited to enjoy the festivities of the Toronto Dragon Festival in a showcase of Chinese arts and culture!

Sincerely,

Robin Buxton Potts
City Councillor
