Toronto Dragon Festival 2025

August 29, 2025

I extend my warmest greetings and congratulations on the return of this vibrant cultural celebration to Nathan Phillips Square.

The Toronto Dragon Festival has become a much-anticipated event that brings together residents and visitors from all walks of life to experience the beauty, richness, and diversity of Chinese culture. From the thrilling acrobatic lion dances and folk performances to the new additions like the Luminati Night Light Show and the International Exhibition of Calligraphy and Painting, the festival continues to grow in scale and impact.

Events like this not only entertain and educate, but they also strengthen the multicultural spirit that defines our city. I commend the Canadian Association of Chinese Performing Arts for your dedication in making this festival a success year after year.

Thank you for your continued efforts in building bridges across communities through art, culture, and tradition. I wish you a successful and joyful 2025 Toronto Dragon Festival.

Sincerely,

Mario G. Racco
